

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL 15, 2009

PositiveEdge Strategies has partnered with Xceedium of New Jersey to implement their product which allows agencies, companies and others to remotely manage high risk users from a central location to anywhere within an IT infrastructure. PositiveEdge Strategies will leverage its existing agency clients while working with Xceedium's list of significant governmental customers.

"We couldn't be happier with this partnership, what it will accomplish for each client and how we'll be on the front lines of cybersecurity" said Vice President of Government Services Marc E. Zigo. "Xceedium is the leader in this space of Entitlement Management Solutions and PositiveEdge Strategies will be there each step of the way".
